

Head Quarters Barnhill Post No 162
Xenia, Ill, Oct 2nd, 1908

Post met and opened in due form with commander J. M. DEAN in the chair. Officers present, Officer of the Day & Officer of the Guard, reading of the Adjutant's report which was read & excepted, also Quarter Master's report was read & excepted.

Comrade G. A. GREENWOOD being reported sick, the commander appointed comrade JEFFRIES & Comrade CREEKMEN as a committee to see if he needed any assistance. After discussion in regard to relief corps being organized it was deferred to next meeting. After some remarks by the commander & others, there being no further business Post closed in regular order.

J.M. DEAN com

H. L. BRADLEY, Adj Pro Tem

Men of the Iron Brigade in action. Drawing by Paul M. Smith.