

of his unmarried sons, Alonzo McSchooler joined the Union Army (under an assumed name John Smith) in 1861 from Los Angeles, CA. After the war Alonzo lived in MN, CO, WA and died in Florida. Levi McSchooler was a photographer and Methodist minister. He joined the Union Army in Union, MO and lived in central Missouri after the war. He died in 1901 in La Salle County, IL. These McSchooler's (as well as modern ones) are very elusive. They apparently knew how to avoid the census takers.
