

MARY ANN LOUSE KINNAMAN

Obituary

Flora Record Journal

On Wednesday morning, January 12, 1916, the community was saddened to learn of the sudden death of one of its highly honored and respected citizens, in the person of Aunt Mary Kinnaman, as she was familiarly called by her large circle of friends.

Mary Ann Luse, daughter of Daniel and Sarah Luse was born February 15, 1841, in Gurnsey Co., Ohio and departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. MEYER, January 12, 1916 at the age of 74 years, 10 months and 25 days. She was the last surviving member of a family of ten children.

She came to Clay County with her parents in 1864. She was united in marriage to Henry Kinnaman in November 1865, and for thirty-seven years they walked together, "keeping the ordinances of the Lord, blameless". To this union three children were born. They were: Sophia May Meyer, of Flora; Charles Henry of Joliet, Il.; and Elmer Paul of Flora. She also leaves seven grandchildren to whom she was much attached. She also was a mother to three of Mr. Kinnaman's children by a former marriage. The son, Alonzo Clay Kinnaman of St. Louis, was also present at the funeral.

The funeral services were held at the Christian Church. The body was carried to its last resting place in the city cemetery by the following officers of the church: W. E. Wood, C. E. Wolfe, P.A. Meyer, E. W. Bryan, F. G. Meyer, and B. F. Wineland.

REBECCA DURLAND

Obituary

Southern Illinois Record

Mrs. Rebecca Durland, wife of J. Y. Durland, passed away after a lingering illness at her home on Seventh and Mill streets, Flora, Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

She was a very well-known and highly respected resident.

Mrs. Durland came to this city in 1869, with her parents, and has resided here ever since - which is nearly fifty years. She was a woman of most estimable character. Besides her husband, the deceased leaves three sons; C. F. Durland of Chicago, O. C. Durland of High Point, South Carolina, and H. E. Durland, also of Chicago, who arrived here Tuesday.

The funeral services were held from the family residence Thursday morning, and were conducted by Rev. M. C. Foltz, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Interment was at Elmwood Cemetery in Flora.
